The Strongsville City Club outdid themselves this year with their Breakfast on the Bridge. Sunday, September 21 was probably the most beautiful day of the summer. Strongsville's movers and shakers and all the politicians were out in force. Strongsville's popular mayor, Tom Perciak and his lovely wife Debbie were cooking and serving. The Kalinichs, Hawks and Kaminskis were home to celebrate mama K's birthday, Councilman Joe DeMio and his darling son; the Juricks; Karl Sprague, barber to the stars; the Stankewiczs, Councilmen Daymut and his wife June; Marlene Martin and her daughter Dana; Historical Society president Ginny Rios and sidekick Jan Zverina attended with friends Mary and Marie Shaw. Among the thousands of dinners on the bridge were Diane Semanco of Brunswick—just back after 20 years in Vegas—and her special friend, Steve Bucha of Parma Heights; Jim Moran and his whole family; Dave and Bernice Kaldy of North Royalton; Terri and Wally Zawadski of Strongsville; Tracy and Al Capretta with Sierra and Sophia of Strongsville; Michael and Daniel of Middleburg Heights; Amber and Josh Stacho of Cleveland; Paula Williams and Dana Otto of Brunswick; Joseete Lebron of Strongsville and Shirley Gown of North Ridgeville. The food was delicious, the camaraderie brilliant; a great time was had by all.
