

The Strongsville City Club launches a Web site

By: Amanda Garrett

April 8, 2010

STRONGSVILLE -- The Strongsville City Club recently launched its Web site, StrongsvilleCityClub.org.

The site features information about the club's capital projects, which include the Clock Tower on the Strongsville Commons, Pat Catan Stadium and the Backyard Preserve. The site also has information about the programs that the club supports such as Safety Town and the Ehrnfelt Senior Center.

A portion of the site is dedicated to the Strongsville Special Olympics. The Special Olympic's section includes goals, guidelines, events, and a photo album.

There is also a section dedicated the club sponsored Strongsville Rib Burnoff, scheduled for June 24-26.

http://www.cleveland.com/sunstarcourier/index.ssf/2010/04/the_strongsville_city_club_lau.html